

JAE SHIN

410-446-2388 | jshin0711@gmail.com
LinkedIn | Portfolio

Professional Summary

Qualified Intellectual Disabilities Professional (QIDP) with six years of experience in case management in the non-profit healthcare sector, ready for a career change into UX Design.

Education

CareerFoundry

Expected Completion: October 2022

UX DESIGN CERTIFICATE | Berlin, Germany

- Intensive, project-based program focused on learning and applying UX design fundamentals
- Specialization in “Frontend Development for Designers”

Accenture

April 2020

DIGITAL SKILLS: USER EXPERIENCE CERTIFICATE | Online

- 1-month UX Design basics program

Loyola University Chicago

May 2016

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN SPECIAL AND ELEMENTARY EDUCATION,
MINOR IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNER EDUCATION | Chicago, IL

- Magna Cum Laude

Professional Experience

Misericordia Home | Chicago, IL

March 2019 - Present

QUALIFIED INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY PROFESSIONAL

- Collaborate with interdisciplinary teams to create and implement person-centered care plans for five adults with disabilities on caseload to help them achieve their goals and increase independence
- Manage three primary direct care staff by providing resources, support daily and trainings monthly to increase staff satisfaction and clients' quality of life

Precious Essentials | Baltimore, MD

July 2020 - July 2021

FREELANCE UX DESIGNER

- Redesigned an outdated e-commerce website to streamline customer experiences and for a cohesive look through collaborative wireframing, branding, UX writing and information architecture

Tools

- Figma
- Adobe XD
- Miro
- HTML
- CSS basics
- JavaScript basics